Senate Approves Nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty By 83-15 Vote; Rejects All Proposed Amendments

10. Exec. H, 90th Congress, 2nd Session. Nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty. Pastore (D R.I.) motion to table Ervin (D N.C.) reservation to the resolution of ratification allowing the United States to refuse to use its armed forces to protect a non-nuclear-weapon state or member of the UN against acts or threats of aggression. Tabling motion adopted 61-30: R 27-12; D 34-18 (ND 30-5; SD 4-13), March 11, 1969. A "yea" was a vote supporting the President's position.

11. Exec. H. Tower (R Texas) reservation to the resolution of ratification allowing the United States to distribute nuclear weapons to regional organizations. Rejected 17-75: R 8-32; D 9-43 (ND 1-33; SD 8-10), March 12, 1969. A "nay" was a vote supporting the President's position.

12. Exec. H. Dodd (D Conn.) understanding to the resolution of ratification stating that a military attack by a nuclear signatory on another signatory would nullify the treaty. Rejected 15-81: R 3-37; D 12-44 (ND 3-35; SD 9-9), March 13, 1969. A "nay" was a vote supporting the President's position.

13. Exec. H. Dodd (D Conn.) understanding to the resolution of ratification that the United States and the Soviet Union would deposit their instruments of ratification simultaneously. Rejected 15-79: R 3-36; D 12-43 (ND 2-35; SD 10-8), March 13, 1969. A "nay" was a vote supporting the President's position.

14. Exec. H. Thurmond (R S.C.) understanding to the resolution of ratification stating that the U.S. remained free to deploy nuclear weapons in Europe. Rejected 17-77: R 10-30; D 7-47 (ND 1-36; SD 6-11), March 13, 1969. A "nay" was a vote supporting the President's position.

15. Exec. H. Ervin (D N.C.) understanding to the resolution of ratification stating that the treaty did not obligate the United States to defend a victim of nuclear attack, and did not alter U.S. commitments. Rejected 25-69: R 10-30; D 15-39 (ND 5-32; SD 10-7), March 13, 1969. A "nay" was a vote supporting the President's position.

16. Exec. H. Approval of the resolution of ratification. Ratified 83-15: R 34-8; D 49-7 (ND 38-0; SD 11-7), March 13, 1969. A "yea" was a vote supporting the President's position.
